

XM28 ON BROADWAY (THE PAJAMA GAME)

Identifier 2011.194.25

Type media

Description

1 audiodisc (CD) (59 min 44 sec), sd. ; 4 3/4 in.

Sirius XM broadcast of talkback with Kathleen Marshall and Kelli O'Hara. Hosted by John von Soosten and Ted Sod. Program includes mention of Roundabout Theatre Company 40th anniversary and discusses the background and history of The Pajama Game, the casting process of Kelli O'Hara, the influence of Doris Day on O'Hara, the character of Babe, rehearsing for the show during the transit strike, the ensemble, various scenes and choreography, working with Harry Connick Jr., Hernando's Hideaway improvisation, the new book adaptation by Peter Ackerman, involvement of Richard Adler, rehearsal and preview process, addition of three songs in the revival, O'Hara's training in Opera and path to musical theatre, reality of the show, future prospects, and audience reaction.

Related staged production

Pajama Game, The

Related Entities Kelli O'Hara, Kathleen Marshall, Ted Sod

Subjects

Sound recordings